SHARP TERMS FOR GERMANY ON FINANCES

(By the Associated Press)

Paris, March 22.—Conditions under which the allied commission on reparations will grant a partial moratorium to Germany on the payment of war indemnities were announced today.

The conditions include perfect autonomy for the Reichsbank, the principal German banking institution, and new legislation to prevent the evasion of German capital from sharing the burden of payments fixed under the Versailles treaty.

Legislation stipulated by the allied commission will be ready for application on a fixed date.

BLACK, TRAFFICER IN VICE, LYNCHED

(By the Associated Press)

Gulfport, Miss., March 22.—The body of Alexander Smith, an aged negro, was found today suspended from a bridge near here. Mystery surrounds the hanging of the negro. Police said that two white girls were recently removed from a house of ill fame conducted by the negro.

CHANCERY CONVEVE HERE NEXT MONDAY

Chancellor W. E. Atkinson of Clarksville will convene a session of chancery court here on next Monday, March 27, which will be the first sitting of the court since January. Many actions are on the docket.

Dr. G. D. Huddleston is a business visitor at Clarksville today.

CARNAGE ONCE MORE DARKENS HOPE OF IRISH 2 SUFFOCATED IN HOTEL FIRE AT DIERKS, ARK.

(By the Associated Press)

Dublin, March 22.—It was officially announced in the Republican organ here that the Irish Republican army convention, the holding of which was forbidden by President Arthur Griffith of the Dail Eireann, will be held here next Sunday as arranged.

The announcement is taken to mean that a definite split has developed in the Republican army.

(By the Associated Press)

London, March 22.—Cordons of British troops may have to be thrown between the elements at war on the Ulster frontier, Winston Churchill today told the house of commons.

(By the Associated Press)

London, March 22.—The situation along the Ulster frontier is going from bad to worse and is such that some trifling incident may draw the rival forces into a conflict which will shatter all prospects of peace in Ireland, according to the Dublin correspondent of the London Times.

DENBY'S PLEA FOR STRONGER NAVY REFUSED

(By the Associated Press)

Washington, March 22.—Favorable report was today adopted by the house naval committee on the bill fixing the maximum strength of the navy at 80,000 men plus 6,000 apprentices, or 10,000 less than Secretary Denby declared was needed for efficient operation of the navy as fixed under the disarmament treaty.

The bill also provides that not more than 200 members of the graduating class of the Annapolis academy may be commissioned this year, in 1923 and in 1924.

MINERS IN SHARP REPLY TO OWNERS

(By the Associated Press)

Washington, March 22.—Bituminous coal operators foresee danger to themselves from enforcement of anti-trust laws if they confer with miners for the fixation of wage scales without conditions being imposed, it is declared in their statement, which the United Mine Workers today branded as "simply a smoke screen."

Unless the wage trouble is adjusted, the national strike order will take effect on April 1.

REFUSAL TO FOREGO JUNKET TO SHOALS

(By the Associated Press)

Washington, March 22.—Members of the senate committee on agriculture, after considering the request of Republican leaders not to absent themselves from the senate during consideration of the arms conference treaties, today decided to follow their previously arranged plan and to leave Saturday night with members of the committee from the house for an inspection of the government power and nitrate projects at Muscle Shoals, Ala.

Both the senate and house committees held that personal inspection of the properties was necessary before action could be taken on the proposals for their lease and purchase.

AUXILIARY ELECTION.

The annual election of officers by the ladies auxiliary of the Conway Commercial Club, postponed from yesterday on account of last night's luncheon by the club, will be held in the club rooms Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, it was announced today by Mrs. Opie Hartje, the president. It is very much desired that all members attend the meeting.

NOTE ON ARMY COST FRAMED IN BOLD STYLE

(By the Associated Press)

Paris, March 22.—The American note regarding the payment by the allies of the cost of maintaining the American army of occupation in the Rhineland, addressed to the European powers associated with the United States in the war, reached the American embassy yesterday, and will be presented to the allies this afternoon. It sets forth the American position in forcible terms.

(By the Associated Press)

Washington, March 22.—Notes identical with the one sent to France regarding the payment of expenditures by American forces on the Rhine, were today submitted by the diplomatic service to the governments of Great Britain, Belgium, Italy and Japan.

G. O. P. HARMONIZE ROW ABOUT BONUS

(By the Associated Press)

Washington, March 22.—The special house resolution, setting tomorrow for suspension of rules in order to force the compromise bonus bill to early passage, was today approved by the rules committee.

By the committee's action, the road is cleared for handling of the bill as first proposed by the ways and means committee. Speaker Gillett will follow the course indicated by the rules and ways and means committee, although opposed to it as unwise.

RIVER CONTINUES RISE AT MEMPHIS

(By the Associated Press)

Memphis, March 22.—The Mississippi rose 1.1 feet during the last 24 hours, and the gauge here today registered 37.5 feet.

With the exception of the flooding of unprotected lands by back water, no damage was reported from Cairo to Helena.

(By the Associated Press)

Oklahoma City, March 22.—An area of over five square miles of lowlands southeast of here is under water today as a result of the rise by the North Canadian river. The Western League baseball park was inundated as well as many shanties.

COTTON MARKETS DECLINE SLIGHTLY

While a late recovery wiped out most of the day's decline in futures, spots on both New York and New Orleans cotton markets were quoted lower today. May New York contracts closed 9 points down at 17.88 cents and July 1 point lower at 17.35 cents. New Orleans May closed at 16.61 cents, 3 points off, and July at 16.45 cents, 1 point down. Spots in New York were lowered 15 points to 18.25 cents and in New Orleans declined 12 points to 16.63 cents.
